noon for Donald McCulloch, 47, prominent in business, educational and church affairs of the Mississippi Coast, who died early Sunday on arrival at Hancock General Hospital after being stricken with a coronary attack shortly after midnight at his home on North Beach Boulevard.

A native of Alberton, Mont. Mr. McCulloch moved to the Gulf Coast after the end of World War II and joined Mississippi Power Co. for which he was supervisor of safety advertising and publicity at the time of his

Mr. McCulloch's interest in ducation was evidenced in numerous channels. One of the founders of Christ Episcopal Day School here, he was a trustee of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School Board. He served 960 as national chairman of the advisory committee of the fredom Forum, headquartered at Harding College, Searcy, Ark., and spoke in this state, Louisiana and elsewhere in the nation on the nature and danger of communism.

'He was a member of the Hancock County and Gulfport Chambers of Commerce, a former senfor warden and vestryman of Christ Episcopal Church and a former Scoutmaster. He also was active in Red Cross work and served on the Gulf Coast Safety Council, was vice president of industrial Editors of Mississippi and vice chairman of the Accident Prevention Committee of (Cont. on Page 4.)

By Installments

The practice of family thrift is again popular, Consumer debt in the United States having soared to new peaks, there is now evidence that American families show renewed interest in saving money.

One indication of this trend is the sharp increase shown in Hancock Bank's Christmas Savings Club. Checks have been mailed to 5,621 Mississippi Coast families who had participated this year in this systematic program of thrift that has become so prevalent. Hancock Bank customers saved $476,665.12 during 1961 to set an all-time record in our Christmas Club savings.

Although the Christmas Club was designed primarily to help families meet the financial demands that come with the Yuletide, the program has expanded to spur the thrift incentive for many other worthy ends. While many families still save only to meet the extra bills, including taxes, that accumulate, others use their club savings for many things — to purchase a new electric range, a stereophonic record player or to make a down payment on a new car. Others put their Christmas

Club checks promptly to work in a savings account where it will earn three per cent interest annually.

While installment buying - "buy now; pay later" continues to attract scores of families, many realize that it is wiser (and less costly) to "save now; buy later."

Whatever your reasons for saving, you should recognize the wisdom of having money in the bank. And the Christmas Savings Club offers an excellent opporfunity for your family to cultivate the habit of thrift by making regular deposits. The Christmas Savings Club is tailored to meet every family's income, savings ranging from twenty-five cents a week to ten dellars Gy Trope.

The employees, officers and directors of Hancock Bank cordially invite you to inquire about the details of Christmas Club membership. Save in weekly installments and prosper, for prosperity lightens the barden in one's pursuit of happiness.

Something Bad

This paper has criticized several times in mild manner the apport given the United Nations by the United States while ecognizing that many might consider such comments on a par with advocating sin and opposing motherhood. On the other and we believe our comments were too mild and that evento fast fading 1961 show such to be the case. Two illustraions are sufficient.

Because the United Nations believes that Congo cannot be trable financially without the province of Katanga, it has waged war, with this country's diplomatic and financial supfort, to force Katanga to be a part of a country of which it has never been a pert. The U. N. forments a war, when its only basis of existence is to stop War.

India, considered by many as the major "neutral" in the II. N. and courted by the United States, makes open variare an Portugal without apology, meanwhile backed by another so-called neutral, Egypt, which refused passage through the Seez to Portuguese vessels contrary to its international commitment.

We believe the United Nations has done nothing to prevent say major war and has done much to encourage minor ones. In essence, we believe it has done little, if any, good and much harm. We believe it is a handicap to this country and that at the minimum we should give it only the same financial support as do India or Ghana or Liberia. Better still, ve believe, would be complete vithdraval from this hypocritical

Something Good

We think it likely that present banking facilities could have provided the financing necessary for the growth anticipated for Hancock County during the next few years due to NASA's Mississippi Test Facility.

Picayune, in its efforts to attract those forced to move from our county's northwest, has muchly publicized availability there of funds for financing new homes---whether actually available or not we don't know.

In any event, starting next Tuesday Bay St. Louis will have a new lending institution, Coastal Savings and Loan Association. Presumably at the onset its lending capacity will be modest, but nevertheless it will provide one more local source of commercial financing for an area that may well expand greatly in just a few years.

MARINE RECRUITER -Sgt. Harry F. Roberts, who joined the Marine Corps in 1954, has assumed duties at the Marine Recruiting office Guifport with Gunnery Sgt. kry A. Thompson. The new recruiter served four years of continuous duty in Japan and on Okinawa and was gradosted in Februry, 1960, from the lst Division's noncommissioned officerson leadership school as honormen of his class. With his wife, the former Marguerite E. Moiner of South Haven, Mich., he is residing at 205 LaRosa St., Long Beach.

AND THE

Christmas, the gayest, happiest holiday of the year, arriving as expected in the usual flurry of mististoe, holly and good cheer, found Waveland full of the Yule spirit and in a good many casesspirits also! All of the happy toes around town are busy either playing with or wrecking the loot Santa brought down their chimneys and a few are amusing themselves racking their brains as they pen Dear Santa letters for next year. Mammas are still attempting to find what lies beneath the mounds of shredded wrapping paper, ribbon, orange peels, not shells, crumpled tricles, broken ornaments, needles from the rapidly shedding tree and prayerfully counting the days until the little darlings return to school once more, as the poor daddys open Happy New Year cards while visions of first of the month bills, income taxes, aum inspection stickers and other such joyous items dance in their heads. On this cheerful note we'll pass on a bit of information regarding boliday doings around Wave-

One of the larger pre-Christmas affairs was the lovely wedding of Mary Frances and Wilmer Seymour which took place at Our Lady of the Gulf Saturday. Mary was breathtaking in her lovely gown and the brilliam candy pink dresses of her attendants were most approprinte for the season. . .we're happy to report that the father of the bride, Ervin, better known as Posey Ladner held up beautifully as he escorted his daughter down the sisle, and Jenny (Mrs. Ladner), booked like a bride herself in rose brocade-Auntie Frances Compretta tossed rice tinted in pastel bues—as proud sums, Angle Morreale and Josephine Chiniche and uncles, Norman, Joe, Tony and Sam beamed as brightly as the sunshine overhead. Some of those seen of the fectivities were Shirley and Roland LaFornsine, Joyce and Carl Ladner-(Carl's knee is showly improving. . he is now able to walk with only the assistance of a cane) Dot and Manny Habbard, Pri and Jerry Carriga, who arrived from Pascagoula for the occasion, Jerry's parents, the Leo Carrigas, Lillian and Dominich Sonier, Nookie and Louis Jecobi, Louis and Garfield Ledner, Too and Chris Ledner, and many others just too numerous to mention. The young couple enjoyed a brief Florida honey-moon, returning home Christmas night as both wanted to spend part of the big day with their parents. Their apartment was all reedy for their arrival, but we're wondering if they won't be forced to rem cnother, so numerous were the wedding presents.

Was a Day for the Family

Family gatherings were pretty much the order of the day Christmas-Mr. and Mrs. Cart Ceter left for Edna, Texas, Friday-they will first visit their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. William Sawyer, then on to Houston where they'll be guests of their son, Carl. ir., and family. Mrs. Cater departed wearing the lovely diamond cluster, her gift from Mr. Cater. Louise and Joe Wymer dined with son and daughter-in-law, Gene and Par Watkins, in the Crescent City. . of course granddaughter Renee was on hand.

Visiting Polly and Joe Compretts are Polly's sister Georgia. husband Lloyd and the three smaller Peavys from Unedilla, Ga. Lt. Bill Gauder, USN, and wife who are stationed in Louisville, Ky., visited papa Bill.

Guardsmen Come Home

All local National Guard members were given a welcome Christ-Gary Karl, Pete Ladner, Larry Bourgeois, Ronnie Bourgeois and Richard Fayard. Eddie Bourgeois leaves Jan. 11, he'll join Michael Peterson at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Gerri and Sam Blanchard drove to Vidalia, La., where they are guests of Gerri's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Spell. They are contemplating returning home for the New Year's Eve festivities. Kate and Roy Saux left for New Orleans bright and early Christmas a.m. Kare sang in St. Clare's choir at midnight mass.

Bay Side of the News

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Chiniche left for Miami, Fla., Tuesdaythey'll visit Mr. and Mrs. George Stemmel. Norman Compretta was surprised by his brothers and sisters last Monday night. . . they arrived with an enormous birthday cake and loads of gifts. . . Babylove and Douglas Bourgeois had their family almost in its entirety for Christmas-Mary Lou and Jimmy Parsons drove over from Mobile, Douglas' brother and four sons arrive from Philadelphia-the only member missing was Gail's husband 'Coach' Timms who is in the hospital. . .we'll send him a hope you're better in a hurry

Get well wishes go to Charleston Ladner who was rushed to Hancock General Friday-however, he was sufficiently recovered to return home Saturday, and to Tony Benigno who suffered a mild heart anack Saturday-he, too, is progressing nicely.

The Bordages clan gathered at Belle and Charlie Peterson's for Holiday guests of Ruth and Jim Redding were Ruth's brother, Sgt. J. Snodgrass and his German bride.

Bea Sees the Pope

Received a fabulous card from Bea Georgi-she was in Rome at the time. . . and had an audience with the Pope on Wednesday, the 20th, she left the following day for Switzerland, Paris and Lourdes. Kitty Mollere and Inga Phillips refuse to let anything and we do mean ANYTHING interfere with their bowling. . . Kitty's sister from Jacksonville and Inga's guests from Copenhagen found both busily brocking down pins when they arrived for the holidays last Friday. Molly and Dave Casey arrived at Mudville but meither were really looking forward to turkey, etc. as each is on a very strict dici—not in the least bit similar.

Teen

So much has been going on it's almost impossible to know where to begin. Just about the most important occasion for seniors at both St. Joseph and Bay ligh were presentation of senior rings. SJA girls received their lovely gold rings with marcon stones; je paran stehe Blessed. Virgin may be viewed through the back) in ceremonies in church last Wednesday. Bay High students were given theirs in assembly on Friday. . . class pre-sident, Ronnie Peterson spoke briefly before the gold and blue (school colors)rings were presented to each boy and girl. This was THE gift most anticipated and most wanted by local 12th grade students. Nancy Chapman went to New Orleans to spend several days with her aunt and uncle. Penny Sue Webre journeyed to Florida for the holidays.

Many members of the younger set attended the wedding of Mary Frances Lodner to 'Coach' Wilmer Seylour. . . Some of those dancing at the reception were Christy Torgersen, Kay Dorich, Ripple Rausch, Nita Kay Erwin and Jimmy Glametta.

Members of Mrs. Lindsey's Spanish class or Boy High enjoy-ed a pinata party Friday. The gaily decorated pinate (pronounced pin-yata) was broken in the Latin tradition and students were showered with toys and candy, the toys presumably for younger brothers and sist-

Home ec gals finished their trays Friday also-some were etched aluminium, others ceramic tile and wood. . . Gail Stewart's was a work of art fashioned in black, white and beige tiles.

The first Christmas dance in good many years was enjoyed by Bay High students Friday night. . . a huge colorfully decorated tree stood in the center of the gym. . . we're wondering if all the boys remembered the list of dos and don'ts for young gentlemen they were so diligently persuing prior to the event.

Frances Lister entertained a group of her friends from New Orleans at her family's summer home last weakend.

Mary Lou Herlihy is taking advantage of her newly acquired drivers license-incidentally, we must comment that she is a very careful morotist...others might do well to follow her exam-

Karen Williams received a tiny kitten from fellow flutist Sondra Hinson-wonder what her parents thought about this gift? . .

Christmas Eve - Mary Gottschalk, Lisa Monti, Judy Carver, Flaine Blaize and Illona Marquez were real eager beavers, they sang on the 23rd also...

On his annual flight over the world, Santa paused long enough over Waveland and Bay St. Louis to leave many presents for the teenagers of these towns, our St. Joseph Jottings reporter, Tunell Bachland, reports.

Mary Lou Herlihy and Carolyn Ziegler each got luggage; Virgle Benigno, Pat Givens and Louise Buikin received new outfits: Ellen Colsen and Dianne Hunter found hair dryers under their Christmas trees, while Jane Ferry discovered a small brown boxer (Buster II) nestled among her other presents, Lucky Virgie Benigno got a ticket to go to California during the summer. The favorite present of most of the girls seemed to be watches. Polly Peers...

center Lionel Hoda had 11, and Jimmy Favre and Malvin Mitchell each scored 10 points as five Hawks hit twin-figures.

Notes 12th Year

Michael Reinike was honored at a slumber party on the oc-casion of her 12th birthday last Thursday. Ghena enjoying the snow-man shaped birthday cake included Fifi and Valion Seuzeneau, Mollie Becker, Karby Saint, Alesna Mirambelle, Susan Ryan, Johnnie Green, Lillian Travirca and Mary Anne Horne.

The North Central girls, still trying to get into the winning side of the ledger, came up with a strong effort against Pearl River Central but were beaten by a nine-point margin. Janelle Ladner scored 20 points to lead the Hawkette scoring.
Following a week-long holiday rest, the Hawks return to action Friday night at Bogue Chitto. Tuesday night, the Hawks will play Picayune of the Big Eight Conference in Picayune.

Kenneth W. Pepperdene, jr. left Tuesday to return to his post aboard the USS Shangri-la at Jacksonville, Fla., after spending a holiday leave here
